Grace Village Newsletter

June 2026

May Recap

May was a month filled with a variety of activities from theatrical recital to folk dancers performing. Residents also enjoyed some zoo therapy with various animals and some fun paint therapy. There were also our usual many musical performances and some new styles of instrumental performances.

June's Summary

We will kick start the month with a visit from the Museum of Nature. Things will then heat up with our Carnival themed event. Residents can expect another visit with their favorite animals from Toutous Poilus. There will be our Ice Cream outing to Coaticook and also some fabulous musical performances, old and new.
